100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age, his fore-teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

J. H. WASHINGTON.

Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1819.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

On the 1st day of October next, the establishment of the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER will be transferred to Mr SAMUEL H. DAVIS, under whose direction it will from that time be printed and published.

In the contemplated change, the present editor and proprietor confidently hopes his friends and patrons will have nothing to complain of either in the manner of conducting the paper or the matter which it will contain. Mr. Davis has been long known to me, and I do with pleasure recommend him to the fostering hand of my long-tried and substantial friends, in the firm belief that he will merit their entire confidence.

After nineteen years application to business, the Editor feels himself bound to declare that the delinquencies of his subscribers has compelled him to this transfer.—His sole attention will now be directed to the collecting of his claims; and those who have had five, ten, and fifteen years indulgence, will, he hopes, see the necessity of discharging their balances. All those indebted will be waited on in course—and a crisis has arrived when promises will not be taken in payment.

To his punctual customers he offers the homage of his profound respect and gratitude; and informs such as has paid in advance that the amount thereof will be duly placed to their credit on the new score.

The paper will be continued to the present patrons. S. SNOWDEN.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

In consequence of the death of the gallant Commodore OLIVER H. PERRY, of the U. S. Navy, at Port Spain, in the Island of Trinidad, on the 28d of August last, a circular letter was, we understand, immediately issued by the Navy Department, addressed to the several Commanding Naval Officers, Commandants of Navy Yards, and the Commandant of Marines, requiring them, respectively, upon receipt of the said circular, to pay the usual tributes of respect to the memory of the illustrious officer deceased, by hoisting the flags at half mast, firing minute guns, and causing the officers attached to their respective commands to wear crape on the left arm during the space of thirty days. PROVIDENTIAL ESCAPE.

On Tuesday morning last, Catharine Jacks, aged about 9 years, a child of capt Samuel Jacks, was at the well of Alanson Austin, in company with his children.—While leaning over the curb, which was low, she lost her foot hold, and was precipitated to the bottom of the well, which was 36 feet deep. The alarm was immediately given to the family, by the children—a lad in the employ of Austin was in the house—he immediately ran to the well and descended it—the child was paddling with both hands, to keep her head above water; a rope was thrown to him, but he preferred to bring her up in his arms, as he said she might be bruised against the stoning of the well, if drawn up. He brought her up, and what is wonderful, she had sustained no serious injury, some slight contusions and a cut on the forehead, about an inch long, which she says was occasioned by the bucket after she was at the bottom of the well, is all the harm she has sustained.

Norristown, (Penn.) Sept. 22.

The Schuylkill Navigation progresses finely. Last week the dam built at Matson's Ford, a few miles below this borough, was closed, which dams the water into the lower lock below the Sweeds-Ford, and makes a complete slack water navigation from that place to Philadelphia. The canal and locks on the western side of Schuylkill will be completed this season. Next summer we may have steam boats plying up and down the Schuylkill.

A gang of counterfeiters, called bankers, have been detected at Detroit. They say they have done without law what others have done with law, and ought to be punished only as they, as their own notes were as good as theirs, and passed only with those who did not know their value. This is a sin after a bad example.

The Darien (Geo.) Gazette denies the correctness of the statements in the Savannah papers which have been generally copied, with regard to the health of that place. "Of the fourteen cases which terminated fatally here this season, two of them only had been residents for more than a twelvemonth; one considerably advanced in years, and therefore unable to resist the shock of an autumnal fever, the other had been exposed three days and nights, in an open boat, to the weather, without changing his clothes. The remainder were mostly persons who had been here from three weeks to a year, irregular in their habits, and without the means of obtaining that nourishment and attention so necessary to the restoration of health. In fact, want and intemperance have done more mischief than climate." We fear this remark is more frequently applicable than is generally believed; though it would be absurd to say, when the mortality is confined to a particular season of the year, and that of short duration, that the climate has nothing to do with it. [Nat. Int.

Four hundred dollars have lately been discovered that were stolen from the mail last Feb. near Bridgetown, New-Jersey. The money was remitted by D. Chester, of Baltimore, and is of the following notes:

Letter D. No. 50, 100 dollars.
D. No. 142, 100
C. No. 221, 100
C. No. 265, 100

All of the Norfolk branch bank of the United States. These notes were given by Bertrand, one of the mail robbers, to one of the keepers of the prison at Trenton, and was immediately recognized as part of the stolen money by the cashier of the Trenton bank, when the keeper deposited it. For what purpose the keeper received it is not known—but we presume an investigation will take place on the subject—he says that Bertrand told him that he received it as a remittance from his mother in France.

He will be invested with full powers immediately on landing, which will be in the course of the day; the whole City is turned upside down—the roaring of cannon the blasts of bugles, and the shouts of the people almost stun me; 10,000 rumors are afloat of war—I will not venture an opinion. It is certain that part of these troops are destined for Pensacola!!! they say 1000 or 1500—this does not look like the cession of the Floridas. What the result of such unexpected proceedings on the part of Spain will be, God only knows.—The times wear a suspicious aspect. Extract, dated La Guira, 17th August.

THE ENGLISH EXPEDITION FROM THE ISLAND MARGARITTA TO THE MAINE.

This expedition consisting of 24 vessels, left Margaritta, on the 13th July, and landed at Barcelona, on the 15th, 16 and 17th.—They did not penetrate into the interior, in consequence of a division, which prepared to resist them. They directed their course towards Cumana, and on the 3d of August they attacked Berdones, by land and sea, but they were repulsed.—On the 5th they made four assaults upon the castle of Aqua Santa, but were driven back with great loss, at the same time they experienced the same fate in their attempts upon the batteries of the town on which occasion they lost a schooner. On the same day the fleet made sail leaving the troops in a state of desperation on shore, where they are now suffering all the miseries of hunger and those incidents to the climate, and where they find lead and lances instead of gold and silver.

Our maritime force was not collected, and although we had but 5 vessels, the enemy did not dare to attack them. On the 17th, 18th and 19th, our fleet was reunited for the purpose of carrying supplies to Porto Cavello—To facilitate this operation an embargo was laid, and in the mean time a division of troops was operating in the plains of Barcelona. Bermudez, with 800 men had arrived to reinforce his friends, but it was too late, they had left the coast, and were flying before the troops. Perey, who was marching to oppose the enemy, met a convoy of cattle under charge of Taraga—the escort was dispersed and the convoy taken Pereyra, subsequently, attacked Bermudez, who after making great resistance was defeated, and pursued by our cavalry, a distance of six leagues, leaving the field covered with dead bodies, muskets and mules, only escaping with 20 men. The 13th and 14th were memorable days for the plains of Barcelona, as the enemy was entirely destroyed. Pereyra having completed the destruction of Bermudez marched against Marina, who with 200 men was in Aragua—he was compelled to fly to the banks of the Oronoke, and our troops who followed him, have extended their operations even to Guyana.

Our maritime forces arrived at Cumana on the 24th. Some of the enemy's vessels were dispersed, and others fled to Margaritta, where they have been followed by our squadron for the purpose of destroying them.

Such is the result of the Quixotic expedition of the English from Margaritta, in which they were joined by Hollanders, French and Germans, and in which they have all reaped the reward of their maritime piracy, losing the greater part of their foreign troops, and more than 600 natives of the corps of Bermudez.

On the west a powerful diversion was attempted. The vanguard of Bolivar, commanded by Santandar, penetrated into the kingdom of San ta Fee. The first division under command of Lancis Somayoth, arrived in the valley of Tensa, was attacked and he surrendered at discretion. The common soldiers entered into the royal service, and Somayoth with 18 officers were executed. At the same time Santandar was beaten at Calzador in the mountains, and was compelled to fall back upon Bolivar at Causanare, where, with water up to their middle, they wait for the month of October to recommence the campaign.

Paez, who with so much pomp, passed the Apur, with 800 horse and 200 infantry, arrived at the town of the cross, when he surrounded 200 of the king's troops. The latter defended themselves with determination, disputing po session of the streets and houses, with the loss of almost all their officers. Twenty assaults filled the entrance of their entrenchments with dead bodies of men and horses;—all the royal officers were killed or wounded; a soldier took the command and Paez persisting in his attempts was driven back with the loss of 460 killed and 250 wounded, and having behind him 400 horses, he was compelled to seek his safety in flight, while the remains of our victorious Lacedemonians, placing their wounded brothers on the enemy's horse, fell back on their principal fort at Nutrias. There does not exist a paralel to the intrepidity displayed on this occasion. The soldier that took the command has been rewarded with a cross of honor, and a pension of 600 dollars. Such is the result of the plans of our enemies, & which has secured the quiet repose of our troops, until the opening of the next campaign."

AGRICULTURAL.

The papers in different parts of the state are full of notices of the approaching Fairs and Cattle-Shows. Politics appear to be almost entirely forgotten for a time, and the attention of every one fixed upon the pursuits and pleasures of Agriculture.—This is as it should be. He that maketh two blades of grass grow, where but one grew before, does more for the good of society, than all the political partizans from the days of Aristotle to the present time.—We would not wish to underrate the other professions. The merchant, manufacturer, mechanic, &c. are all necessary; but it is principally to agriculture we must look as the great source of our national wealth, and the strength and durability of our republican institutions. Commerce may fluctuate or be wholly cut off; and the merchant, who was worth thousands yesterday may be worse than nothing to-morrow. The prices of manufactures may vary and produce poverty and distress. It is not so with the farmer. He is in a great measure independent of these circumstances. His trade cannot fail him while the earth endures, and continues to yield her increase. He must in some degree, like other classes in community feel the pressure of the times; but notwithstanding this drawback upon his interests and pleasures, how much reason has he at the close of a fruitful season, when his granaries are crowded with the produce of his labor and industry, and his table loaded with plenty to relax his cares for a season, and participate in the pleasures of a festival peculiarly his own!

Arrangements have been made for blending utility and amusement in this rural celebration, and every one is busy in making ready for the joyous occasion. The sound of hammers in fitting up the impliments of husbandry "give note of preparation"—not for battle and slaughter, but for rivalry in the arts of peace. The farmer is furnishing—not his arms to meet the enemies of his country—but the plough-share, that he may be able to bear off the palm of victory over his friends and neighbors. He is engaged in training—nor the war horse whose neck is clothed with thunder—but his peaceful Team for the rural contest.—Nor does the emulous and industrious house wife neglect her part, but "plies her evening care" in putting the specimens of her skill in a state of readiness for exhibition.

The splendour of military glory—The sound of the drum and bugle—the neighing and prancing of steeds; the nodding of plumes—the glitter of armor, and all the pomp and circumstance of war my dazzle and delight for a moment; but what dissimular associations does the scene awaken, and how widely does it differ in character from the one which is approaching! The laurel which entwines the hero's brow is bathed in blood, and wet with the tears of the widow and orphan. But the civic wreath of the farmer is green from his own woods, unstained with gore and unmixed with cypress. His achievements did not wring the heart with anguish, nor draw down curses upon his head; the shouts of his victory are not blended with the voice of wailing and distress; but the applauses of his fellow citizens follow him from the field of contest to his rural shades, and he is remembered as the friend and benefactor of society.

LAW DECISION.

The following decision was made by the Court of Common Pleas, lately held in and for the county of Oneida:—

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS.

At the last Court of Common Pleas, holden in and for the county of Oneida, which closed its session on the 10th inst. came on to be tried before said court the cause of Peter Magher, vs. the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of UTICA. The action was assumpsit to recover of the defendants the amount of a bank note, made in the usual form, and endorsed "O Seymour." The plaintiff proved the execution of the note, and a demand of payment at the mother bank in Utica. The defendants resisted the recovery upon the ground that the endorsement, "O. Seymour," (by virtue of the statute authorising the bank to establish a branch at Canandaigua) made it payable on demand at their branch in Canandaigua only; but the court decided that the defendants were responsible to pay the note on a presentation at the mother bank as well as at the branch. C. M. Lee, counsel for plaintiff; D. W. Childs and N. Williams, for defendants.

OPTICAL MACHINE.

A newly constructed Optical Machine, the work of an American artist in this city, is nearly completed. It consists of an excellent reflecting Telescope, a reflecting Microscope, a superb & improved Kaleidscope, a pair of Prisms, a species of the Camera Obscura, and two compound Microscopes; together with other apparatus, entirely new. A TALE OF HORROR.

In the journal of travels in Sweden, Russia, Poland, &c. during the years 1812 and and 1813, by the Rev. J. T. James of Christ Church, Oxford, the author relates the following most affecting incident, which became known to him from his visit to the Foundling Hospital at Moscow.

We were interested extremely," says Mr. James in his account of the Foundling Hospital, "by the appearance of two Spanish children among the number, who were as far as could be ascertained from their account, the offspring of a chaplain from Madrid, accompanying the division of Spanish forces employed in the French service during the invasion of Russia. He, however, died at Moscow, and their mother, who had been delivered of an infant during their stay, fearing to hazard the vengeance of the inhabitants in their return to the city, endeavoured with her little family to accompany the retreating French army. Her strength seems to have been very unequal to the attempt; and when they last saw her, she was lying on the road side, unable to proceed, her body doubtless perfectly exhausted, and her mind, as might be gathered from their description, in a complete state of delirium. The daughter, though only eleven years of age, took charge of her brother as well as her infant sister, whom she carried on her back for many leagues. This little party followed the troops during all the severity of the weather without any other provision than the few scraps of horse flesh or offal which the half starved soldiers could spare from their meal.

After many escapes they at length reached Crasnoi; but during the action which there took place they were frightened at the appearance of a squadron of Cossacks and fled to conceal themselves in the forest; here they staid two days without any food, and were at last accidentally found by a Russian soldier, crawling as well as their little strength would permit them along the snow. Their feet were entirely bare, and being seized by the frost, had become useless; there language was not understood; and had they even been skilled in the Russian tongue, their voices, feeble and inarticulate, could have availed them nothing: their appearance, however, was sufficient to proclaim their situation, and to ensure them commisseration in this country. The Grand Duke Constantine happened to fall in with them after their discovery by the soldier and ordered them to be well taken care of, finally giving them a place in this asylum.

They were of an intelligent countenance, and said to possess some talent; and we must hope, adds Mr. James, the singular story of the first part of their lives will be followed by a more happy career in the land that has adopted them."

Expeditions undertaking at the expense of Romanzow.

It is well known that the voyage round the world of Otto Kotzebue, was undertaken at the expense of count Romanzow. At this moment, the same noble patron of science is fitting out two new expeditions at his own charge; the one is intended to pass from Asia to America, across the solid fields of ice, to the north of the country of the Tschutki; the other is to sail up one of the rivers which fall into the sea on the north west coast, or Russian America, in order to penetrate through the unknown space betweeen Icy Cape and river Mac-Kenzie. LATEST FROM EUROPE.

To the politeness of Capt. Wattelling of the British brig Hibernia, in 30 days from Dublin, papers to the 24th of August, inclusive, containing London dates to the 22d, have been received, from which we have made the following extracts.

A Deputation of the civil and military power had arrived in London express from Manchester on the 21st of August, when a Cabinet Council was immediately held at which most of the Ministers were present, Lords Sidmouth, Liverpool, Castlereagh, the Attorney and Solicitor General, &c. &c. The object of this meeting was to obtain a precise view of the situation of affairs, and to adopt measures of safety.

The latest intelligence from Manchester announce that all was quiet in that city.—The 4th or royal Irish dragoons had marched from Leeds to Manchester, to prevent any further disturbance.

FROM HAVRE.

New-York, Sept. 27.

By the Messenger, we have French papers to the 13th ult. The following prices are contained in a letter, from which it will appear, that a favorable change has taken place.

Prices at Havre, Aug. 14.—Georgia cotton from 35 to 40 sous, brisk; N. Orleans 36 to 44. Coffee is very scarce, St. Domingo 29 to 30; Havana, green, 29 to 31. Pepper, light, 17 in bond; heavy do. 20. Ashes very scarce, 55 to 56. [Gaz.

The Editors of the Gazette have been favored with the following important extract of a letter to a mercantile house in this city:

"St. George's Bermuda, Sept. 15.

"We have now the pleasure to advise you of having received an act of parliament from Great Britain, allowing the exportation from hence to the U. S. of all articles the produce of these islands, and of all articles whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the same in any British ship or vessel, by which we flatter ourselves our trade will be considerably increased."

[In addition to the above, we learn from the Bermuda Gazette Extra, of Sept. 9 that the above act of parliament authorises the importation of Rosin from the U. States in foreign vessels, in addition to other articles previously permitted to be thus imported.]

Copy of a letter from a gentleman in Chilicothe, to his friend in Baltimore, dated Sept. 17, 1819.

"DEAR SIR—The law of this state against the U. S. Bank, in this town, was carried into strict execution to-day. A person deputised by the auditor entered the Branch and demanded the tax of fifty thousand dollars—which sum being refused, he proceeded to the vault, and swept all that could be found, and had it taken off and deposited in the bank of Chilicothe. The circuit court, which had been sitting, had adjourned last evening, had granted an injunction. The Branch Bank, it is probable, will be shut up for a short time."

Correct Information.

THE stock advertised for sale by the Mechanics' Bank as standing in our names is not our property. Our stock note thereon has been continued, under heavy and disproportioned curtailments, ever since March 1818, for the use of the real owner, a respectable mechanic of this place, because he could not obtain leave, upon a transfer, to substitute his stock note for our's. We have no interest in said stock beyond the sum that will retire the said stock note, and we do not think it proper to advance more money than we have done for curtailments.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the district of Fredericksburg, in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell, at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next, lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg. The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

4000 Acres of Land,

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated; very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington, Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria, Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria, Rev Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles of Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26

For Sale,

TWO tracts of valuable land in Durham Parish, Charles County, Maryland opposite Nanjemoy Reach—one of these tracts of land is bounded on one side by the Potomac, has a valuable fishery, and contains about 360 acres of bottom, with a quantity of wood that ought to be cut.—The other is about three-fourths of a mile from the river, from one half to two thirds covered with wood and valuable white-oak timber, and contains about 700 acres. Both tracts have an orchard of choice fruit. The above land will be sold at Charles County Court, on THURSDAY in the third week of August next at Public sale, if not sold before, at private sale.—The terms will be made known at the sale. Timber or wood may be purchased any time previous to the sale.
